previously report this to probation. The defendant noted that he again found the device earlier this month.

SPECIAL CONDITION: The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or have access to any on-line service without the prior approval of the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office. The defendant's cooperation shall include but not be limited to allowing installation of a computer and Internet monitoring program and/or identifying computer systems, Internet-capable devices, and similar memory and electronic devices to which the defendant has access.

STANRDARD CONDITION: You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.

Prior to a polygraph exam taken on August 19, 2020, the defendant reported to probation that he had no further use of the Internet or other unauthorized devices. Directly prior to the exam, the defendant informed that he had used video chat applications with family members. The defendant also noted directly prior to the exam that he had entered his phone number into another individual's phone and had possession of the device for a limited period of time.

The defendant subsequently was found to have a significant response to the focus questions on the polygraph exam when questioned about use of unauthorized devices or Internet beyond what he had already disclosed.

PRAYING THAT THE COURT WILL ORDER that a summons be issued and the defendant be brought before the Court to show cause why supervision should not be revoked.

ORDER OF THE COURT

Considered and ordered this 27th day of August 2020, and ordered filed and made a part of the records in the above case.
